

Please do not override the portions of the NJ Do Not Call law that exceed the protections of the federal Telephone Consumer Protection Act. States should have the right to protect citizens from intrusion into their lives by telemarketers over and above that provided by federal law if their citizens request it.